

Located In the heart of Poggio San Marcello, Tenute Cesaroni, a family-run company founded in the early 60s with its vineyards that kiss the Trabocco, a small natural waterfall that belongs to a soon promoted National Park. The estate consists of 40 hectares of vineyards, which overlook the Adriatic Sea with a south-east angle while on the west side it greets the Apennines. The vineyards are located at a height ranging from 400 to 450 meters from the Sea level it thrives on hot summers gently refreshed by the height and by the constant sea winds which it helps the grapes to preserve their primary hints of fruits and vegetables. The vineyards are mostly young and range from 10 to 25 years old, this means that they have years of prosperity, quality, vigor and quantity in the fruit production in front of them, in addition to the enologist Vittorio Festa, awarded as the Best Italian enologist of 2018, he has been following the company for 3 years now with the aim of giving a new imprint. The project is ambitious, in the long term with the aim of being recognized in Italy and internationally as an humble company with great tradition and love for the territory that constantly tries to give its contribution through approaches and treatments with low environmental impact, a gradual transformation but at the same time targeted, well focused the one that led Tenute Cesaroni to a processing in Organic (10 Ha) and a conversion always to Organic precisely of 25 Ha soon certified, to offer a circular economy of the territory, with quality objectives but also and above all to sustainability and biodynamics. Tenute Cesaroni owns vineyards of Chardonnay, Passerina, Sangiovese, Montepulciano and Verdicchio Dei castelli di Jesi Classico, Superiore and soon RISERVA DOCG, we are in the heart of the appellation.
